

I STRONGLY oppose any weakening of the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. Its bad enough I still get sales calls occasionally, but to weaken this law would make it where you dont want to have a phone anymore. These solicitors call on the weekends, early mornings and late nights. Not only that, its obvious they are outsourcing these jobs to other countries because the solicitors can barely speak english. Im fed up with this. They need to remove their petition immediately.